

How To Thrive In Any Economic Situation

The Edgewood Chamber of Commerce is please to present a business seminar that is sure to help you and your business!

Matthew C. Cox, owner of Levi's Books and Taxes and author of Living the Southwest Lifestyle will be leading the seminar.

Matt recently led four businesses to unprecedented growth during what other people see as "bad economic times". He determined a plan, helped the businesses put the plan into place, and their business has never been better.

Matt will share the secrets of that plan and how anyone can do the same thing to experience business growth - no matter what the media says about the economy.

This exciting seminar will be held on Thursday May 13, 2010 from 9:00 to 11:00 AM at the Edgewood Community Center. The cost is $25 and all paid participants will have the opportunity to schedule a FREE 30 minute consultation with Matt ($75 value) after the seminar.

Call the Edgewood Chamber office to register for this seminar. 505-286-2577